DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is located on the east side of U.S. Route 40-A, south of Benevola Church Road at Benevola, north of Boonsboro in Washington County, Maryland. It is situated on high ground and faces west. It is a two story, three bay brick house resting on fieldstone foundations. Built into a slope, several feet of the houses's foundation wall are exposed above ground level at the front elevation. Bricks forming the walls are laid in American bond at all elevations.

Wide wooden lintels are present above the doors and windows. Openings are aligned with each other in the walls and have narrow frames finished with a bead at the inside edge. Many windows retain six over six pane sashes while some have two over two pane sashes. Remaining shutters are of the type with movable louvers.

The door is located in the center bay of the front elevation and is hung beneath a transom. A small gable roofed Victorian entrance porch is present.

A low pitched hipped roof covers the house and extends beyond the end walls at all elevations. The eaves area is trimmed with large wooden brackets. A centrally placed brick chimney is present and a modern block flue has been attached to the south wall. A late 19th century frame addition sheathed with composition siding is located along the east or rear wall of the house.

The building appears to be in good condition.
